*CALL TO WORSHIP
HYMN #46

Rachel Hostetler, Worship Leader
I sing the mighty power of God

L: Holy God, we borrow life from you.

C: We are always in your care.

L: Be present with us here.

C: We have come to worship you.

L: We have come to experience you.

C: We have come to be energized by you.

L: Gather us together as one.

C: We will listen and learn from you and from each other.

SCRIPTURE

Jeremiah 1:4-10
John 6:1-14

CONFESSION

Holy One, the earth is full of food, but we confess that we have not distributed it well. Our gardens have yielded plenty. Teach us to be good stewards of the harvest. Our meal tables are ample. Guide us into the goodness of hospitality. Our lives are full. Show us how to make room for the unexpected guest.

Holy One, remind us that you have given us words to speak and gifts to share. Remind us that we can be part of your work in the world. Put your words in our mouths. We offer you our gifts.
Amen.

*SENDING FORTH

L: Today some of us are walking for CROP, Communities Responding to Overcome Poverty.

C: We walk with the world's poor as they walk for food and firewood and to escape violence.

L: Today some of us are walking with Rosedale's Healthy Kids.

C: We walk with joy, loving the joy and energy of the children.

L: Today we all walk with you, trusting you for each step.

C: Come, let us walk together in the light of God.
